

The Auxiliary has distinguished itself as an integral part of the Hospital. Its million dollar fundraising efforts have been responsible for contributions to major undertakings at the Hospital. The Auxiliary is rich with a history of providing ideas, financial support and volunteerism to complement the ever-spiraling growth and technological needs of healthcare.

Membership in the Auxiliary is available at several levels with no monthly meetings to attend. It is open to men and women regardless of age.

“The Auxiliary is a special group of people dedicated to the hospital and the patients and families we serve. The fundraising and dollars contributed to the hospital over the years has enabled us to purchase state-of-the-art equipment to care for our patients. It is a pleasure to work with such a devoted group of volunteers. We cannot thank you enough for all you do.”

The aim of The Hospital of Central Connecticut Bradley Memorial Auxiliary is to provide long-term commitment of emotional and medical support to the hospital and community. Due to the generosity of the local doctors, auxiliary membership and all of the Southington community who support our programs, we have been able to purchase equipment for our Cardiology Department and Emergency Department as well as support other programs in various areas of the hospital. Yearly we recognize our employees and volunteers with a continental breakfast and decorate our hospital for the holidays.

Join the Auxiliary and discover the power of community and the importance of a welcoming place in which to contribute your talents and knowledge to further our fundraising efforts.
