

You want the best for your baby.

*Including your doctor.
And your hospital.*

Thousands of babies make their debut each year at The Hospital of Central Connecticut. That's because we really deliver. From our skilled and talented physicians, to our warm and caring nurses, our staff is dedicated to making every birth a special delivery. With private rooms and gourmet meals to celebrate the new arrival, we're everything you'd expect when you're expecting, and more.
